| CB1 | Students must demonstrate to possess and understand knowledge in a field of study which takes place from the base of the general secondary school, and it is common to find a level that, albeit it relies on advanced text books, also includes some aspects which imply knowledge from the forefront of its field of study. |
| CB2 | Students must know how to apply their knowledge to their job or vocation in a professional manner and they must possess the competencies which are usually demonstrated by means of the elaboration and defense of arguments and the solution of problems in their field of study.                                            |
| CB3 | Students must possess the capacity to gather and interpret relevant information (usually in their field of study) in order to give opinions which include a reflection about relevant topics which are social, scientific or ethic in nature.                                                                                 |
| CG2 | Knowledge of the standard and coherent, correct and appropriate usage of the foreign language, orally and in writing.                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

METHODOLOGY

General clarifications on the methodology. (optional)

Students will be provided with the material given in class and will have to use the chosen textbook (face2face, Elementary, Student's Book, CUP) in order to prepare the final exam, as well as the writing assignments, the oral test and the listening comprehension exercises.

Methodological adaptations for part-time students

Part-time students who cannot attend classes on a regular basis will have to communicate their condition to the teacher at the beginning of the course (during the first two weeks). These students are required to follow the same assessment criteria, so they will have to make all the different tasks proposed in class.
