INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES

- | | |
|-----|---|
| CB3 | Students must possess the capacity to gather and interpret relevant information (usually in their field of study) in order to give opinions which include a reflection about relevant topics which are social, scientific or ethic in nature. |
| CB4 | Students must transmit information, ideas, problems and answers to both specialised and not specialised publics. |
| CU1 | To accredit the use and proficiency of a foreign language. |
| CG2 | Knowledge of the standard and coherent, correct and appropriate usage of the foreign language, orally and in writing. |

OBJECTIVES

The main objective of this course is to make students achieve a degree of competence in English corresponding to the B1.1 level (intermediate) of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). The focus will be on the five different skills: written comprehension (reading), oral comprehension (listening), written expression (writing), oral expression (speaking), and oral interaction. When reaching the B1.1 level the student will be able to:

- enter unprepared into conversation on familiar topics, express personal opinions and exchange information on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current affairs);
- use a wide range of simple language to deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling;
- briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions, plans and actions;
- give descriptions on a variety of familiar subjects and describe an event (real or imagined) in writing and speaking;
- describe dreams, hopes and ambitions;
- convey simple, straightforward information of immediate relevance, getting across which point he/she feels is most important.
