OBJECTIVES

The main objective of this course is to help students achieve a degree of competence in English corresponding to the C1.1 level (proficient user) of the CEFRL (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). The focus will be on the understanding and use of more complex grammatical structures of English as well as on the five communicative skills: written and oral comprehension (reading and listening) and written and oral production and interaction (writing and speaking).

At the C1.1 level, students will be independent users of English who will be able to:

- They can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning.
- They can express themselves fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions.
- They can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes.
- They can produce clear, well-structured, detailed texts on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

COORDINATION CRITERIA

Common evaluation criteria

The methodological strategies and the evaluation system contemplated in this Course Description will be adapted according to the needs presented by students with disabilities and special educational needs in the cases that are required.

CONTINGENCY PLAN: CASE SCENARIO A

Case scenario A will correspond to a diminished on-site academic activity due to social distancing measures affecting the permitted capacity of classrooms.

METHODOLOGY

General clarifications on the methodology on case scenario A

A multimodal (hybrid) teaching system will be adopted, combining both on-site and remote classes via videoconference (synchronous) that will be held in the timetable approved by the corresponding Faculty or School. The time distribution of teaching activities (both on-site and remote) will be decided by the aforementioned Faculties and Schools bearing in mind the permitted capacity of classrooms and social distancing measures as established at that time.

Class work will focus on the five communicative skills and will include individual, pairwork and group exercises. The methodology also includes explanations and presentations about grammar and vocabulary, with related activities.

CONTINGENCY PLAN: CASE SCENARIO B

Case scenario B will bring about a suspension of all on-site academic activities as a consequence of health measures.

METHODOLOGY

General clarifications on the methodology on case scenario B

On-site teaching activities will be held via videoconference (synchronous) in the timetable approved by the corresponding Faculty or School. Alternative activities will be proposed for reduced groups in order to guarantee the acquisition of course competences.

Class work will focus on the five communicative skills and will include individual, pairwork and group exercises.

The methodology also includes explanations and presentations about grammar and vocabulary, with related activities.
