Recommendations

Students are required to have a reliable internet connection and portable computer with a system that supports applications to follow the different activities planned in the course online. They are also required to prepare the material provided by the instructors prior to each session.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES

CE10	Knowledge of the specific terminology of the main linguistic disciplines.
CE11	Knowledge of the specific linguistic features of the English language with respect to the native language, and their differences. Theoretical and practical knowledge of the Spanish/English language mediation.
CB1	Capable of analysis and synthesis.
CB2	Capable of organisation and planning.
CB3	Knowledge of a foreign language (English).
CB5	Students have the ability to gather and interpret relevant data (usually within their field of study) to inform judgements that include reflection on relevant social, scientific or ethical issues.
CB8	Students can apply their knowledge and understanding in a manner that indicates a professional approach to their work or vocation, and have competences typically demonstrated through devising and sustaining arguments and solving problems within their field of study.
CB13	Capable of self-assessment
CB14	Adapt to new situations.
CB17	Motivation for quality, professional ambition and entrepreneurship.
CB18	Students have demonstrated knowledge and understanding in a field of study that builds upon their general secondary education, and is typically at a level that, whilst supported by advanced textbooks, includes some aspects that will be informed by knowledge of the forefront of their field of study.
CU1	Accredit the use and mastery of a foreign language.
CU2	User level knowledge and mastery of ICTs.
CE12	Analysis, commentary and explanation of texts in English of various registers, types, genres and historical periods.
CE13	Proficiency in oral and written academic English, as well as the techniques for writing academic papers. Ability to defend and express abstract concepts, hypotheses and relationships in academic essays.
CE15	Use different resources for the study and research of English linguistics, both in print and electronic form (bibliographies, databases, relevant specialised computer applications in linguistic studies)
CE16	Knowledge of the methodologies, tools and resources of language industries and information and communication technologies.
CE24	Identify, classify, explain and evaluate the various language functions regarding units, relations and processes.
CE25	Ability to analyse the phonetic, phonological, morphosyntactic, semantic properties and discourse of the English language.
CE26	Ability to identify periods in the evolution of the English language and to assign and recognise characteristics with respect to those periods.
CE27	Participation in group learning activities: assignments, studies
CE28	Participation in learning forums and knowledge transfer: newsgroups, blogs
CE29	Analyse factors related to the use of language in situations that affect the final form of written and spoken text.
CE33	Ability to develop critical and independent thinking through the reading and analysis of literary texts and other cultural manifestations in the English language.
CE34	Ability to critically evaluate a bibliography and situate it within a theoretical perspective.
CE35	Ability to design and develop training materials and materials for self-learning related to the academic content of the module.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

CE39	Ability to identify the cognitive and functional determinants of language structure and use.
CE40	Develop autonomy to select linguistic and methodological resources according to the objective to be pursued.
CE41	Develop an interest in linguistic theory and its application to various fields such as the study of creative texts in English and English language teaching and learning methodology.
CE42	Develop an interest in both synchronic and diachronic linguistic theory and description.
CE43	Develop an interest in the various theories of language teaching and learning in a heterogeneous context of diverse traditions, methods and approaches.
CE44	Ability to synthesize, organize, manipulate and effectively convey the knowledge acquired in the different modules.
CE45	Accept critical currents of thought that differ from that of the students.
CE51	Ability to distinguish between different theoretical/critical approaches to the same problem.
CE52	Ability to identify research problems and topics and assess their relevance.
CE53	Ability to analyse texts and discourse in English using the proper techniques of analysis.
CE55	Scientific knowledge of the semantics and pragmatics of English.

OBJECTIVES

Introduction to the figurative use of language.

Acquiring knowledge about conceptual metaphor and metonymy, from a cognitive linguistics perspective.

Checking different linguistic levels at which these two conceptual mechanisms operate.

Performing cross-linguistic comparative studies/analyses to check differences in conceptualization.

METHODOLOGY

General clarifications on the methodology (optional)

The new concepts introduced in the course will be reinforced by the study of cases and the doing of exercises by students. These will help students acquire autonomy to design their own project.

Each of the compulsory readings are to be prepared autonomously by the student to ease their follow up in each session and to allow them to ask for clarification of any doubts they may have encountered.

Methodological adaptations for part-time students and students with disabilities and special educational needs

Part-time students and students with special needs should let the instructors know of their status so that the methodological adaptations required in each case can be adopted.

General clarifications on instruments for evaluation:

Students' acquisition of the course contents and competences will be assessed using three tools: a series of case studies, an oral presentation of a selection of original examples and a corpus-based analysis of figurative language. Grades for each item will be valid during the same academic year in which they were obtained.

Clarifications on the methodology for part-time students and students with disabilities and special educational needs:

Part-time students and students with special needs must contact the instructor the at the beginning of the semester to discuss on the methodological adaptations that may be required to meet their needs.

Clarifications on the evaluation of the first extraordinary call and extra-ordinary call for completion studies:

Students going for any of the extraordinary calls will have to take the same evaluation activities as in the ordinary call.

Qualifying criteria for obtaining honors:

obtaining a minimum qualification of 9.0 points and being an outstanding student.

The methodological strategies and the evaluation system contemplated in this Course Description will be adapted according to the needs presented by students with disabilities and special educational needs in the cases that are required.

CONTINGENCY PLAN: CASE SCENARIO A

Case scenario A will correspond to a diminished on-site academic activity due to social distancing measures affecting the permitted capacity of classrooms.

METHODOLOGY

General clarifications on the methodology on case scenario A

A multimodal (hybrid) teaching system will be adopted, combining both on-site and remote classes via videoconference (synchronous) that will be held in the timetable approved by the corresponding Faculty or School. The time distribution of teaching activities (both on-site and remote) will be decided by the aforementioned Faculties and Schools bearing in mind the permitted capacity of classrooms and social distancing measures as established at that time.

The new concepts introduced in the course will be reinforced by the study of cases and the doing of exercises by students. These will help students acquire autonomy to design their own project.
