METHODOLOGY

General clarifications on the methodology (optional)

It should be noted in any event that plagiarism is a most serious academic offense and students cannot pledge ignorance about its unacceptability. It becomes a fact whenever a person presents someone else's work as his or her own. Plagiarism may consist in cutting and pasting passages from downloadable sources, in copying fragments from printed texts or in failing to cite an author for ideas appropriated for a piece of research.

Methodological adaptations for part-time students and students with disabilities and special educational needs

Part-time students are required to get in touch with the teacher during the first three weeks of the first semester in order to plan an alternative schedule of academic activities.

Methodological adaptations for students with special needs will be planned in cooperation with the UNEI (Unidad de educación inclusiva), as required.

(*)Minimum mark (out of 10) needed for the assessment tool to be weighted in the course final mark. In any case, final mark must be 5,0 or higher to pass the course.

Attendance will be assessed?:

No

General clarifications on instruments for evaluation:

Document analysis will be carried out as on-site discussion in small group sessions and online through the Moodle forum tool. (25% of final grade).

Text commentary will be done as a series of assignments to be completed before the semester ends, to be handled as Moodle Tasks. Students will have to comment on one excerpt from each of the compulsory readings, guided by a research question. Tasks will be distributed as follows:

Task 1: 15%

Task 2: 15%

Task 3: 15%

Task 4: 15%

The exam will take place on the date assigned by the administration. For students who have passed all the previous tasks, exam will consist in the commentary of 1 excerpt from the last compulsory reading (15% of final grade). Students who have failed at least two of the previous tasks will have to do a conventional exam consisting in a detailed and critical analysis of one or several of the texts discussed in class. The student will have to engage with theoretical, critical, cultural, historical and political issues and questions of literary tradition and influence (75% of final grade).

Clarifications on the methodology for part-time students and students with disabilities and special educational needs:

Part-time students should contact the Professor at the beginning of the semester to specify the details regarding assessment. Adaptations for students with special needs will be designed under the supervision of the UNEI.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Clarifications on the evaluation of the first extraordinary call and extra-ordinary call for completion studies:

In these extraordinary periods, Text commentary and Exam will be the only assessment tools to be used.

Qualifying criteria for obtaining honors:

Matrícula de Honor will be given to 5% of the students with the highest grades (with a minimum of 9 as a global grade), according to UCO regulations.

The methodological strategies and the evaluation system contemplated in this Course Description will be adapted according to the needs presented by students with disabilities and special educational needs in the cases that are required.

CONTINGENCY PLAN: CASE SCENARIO A

Case scenario A will correspond to a diminished on-site academic activity due to social distancing measures affecting the permitted capacity of classrooms.

METHODOLOGY

General clarifications on the methodology on case scenario A

A multimodal (hybrid) teaching system will be adopted, combining both on-site and remote classes via videoconference (synchronous) that will be held in the timetable approved by the corresponding Faculty or School. The time distribution of teaching activities (both on-site and remote) will be decided by the aforementioned Faculties and Schools bearing in mind the permitted capacity of classrooms and social distancing measures as established at that time.
