OBJECTIVES

The main objective of this course is to help students achieve a degree of competence in English corresponding to the C1.1 level (proficient user) of the CEFRL (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). The focus will be on the understanding and use of more complex grammatical structures of English as well as on the five communicative skills: written and oral comprehension (reading and listening) and written and oral production and interaction (writing and speaking).

At the C1.1 level, students will be independent users of English who will be able to:

- Understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning.
- Express themselves fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions.
- Use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes.
- Produce clear, well-structured, detailed texts on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Attendance will be assessed?:

No

General clarifications on instruments for evaluation:

Continuous assessment (January):

WRITING: 20% global grade = "Essays" (Compositions)

SPEAKING: 10% global grade = "Oral presentation" (Activity)

LISTENING: 10% global grade = "Real or simulated tasks" (Listening test)

ASSIGNMENT(S) (=Case Studies): 10% global grade. Class assignments are related to the active involvement of students during the course in a wide range of individual, pair and/or group activities that will be specified at the beginning of the course. These assignment(s) may be done on any class day and the teacher will not notify the students in advance.

FINAL EXAM: 50% global grade = This exam will have sections on Use of English, grammar, vocabulary and reading, but the mark will be global.

NOTES:

- Students must pass all the parts of the subject with the exception of the assignment in order to pass the course in the first call.
- Attendance and participation do not receive a numerical grade but students must attend at least 80% of the SMALL GROUP (practical) lessons in order to be evaluated through continuous assessment.

2nd call (February)

All students re-sitting an exam in the 2nd Ordinary Call (February) must obtain a minimum grade of 5 out of 10 points in all the skills assessed (with the exception of the Class Assignments) to pass the course. The teacher will keep the marks of the parts of the subject that the student has passed with a minimum mark of 5 in the first call.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Clarifications on the methodology for part-time students and students with disabilities and special educational needs:

Part-time students and students with disabilities and special educational needs will be assessed following the same criteria. However, they will have to communicate their condition to the teacher at the beginning of the course (during the first two weeks).

Clarifications on the evaluation of the extraordinary call and extra-ordinary call for completion studies:

Assessment in extraordinary calls

- 80% Exam
- 10% Listening
- 10% Writing

NOTES:

- The teacher will not keep the marks of the parts that the student has passed in any of the ordinary calls.
- Students will pass the subject if the final mark is 5 or above, regardless of the mark obtained in each part.

Qualifying criteria for obtaining honors:

To obtain a minimum grade of 9.
