THE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE RADIOLOGICAL STUDIES REQUIRED FOR THE DIAGNOSIS OF OSTEOCHONDROSIS (OCD) IN THE PRE-HORSE

Manuel Novales DVM, PhD
The Head of the Diagnostic Center
pv1nodum@uco.es
10 x-rays:
1 LM of every fetlocks (4)
Obliques views of both hocks (4)
LM of every stifles (2)

CD Record in DICOM system

Every image must be identified by:
- Microchip number.
- Name of the vet or technician.
- Date.
- Do not write the number of the owner.
- Do not write the number of the horse.

Novales M.
We only want to see the sagittal ridge of third metacarpal bone (in the dorsal portion)
Not allowed. Impossible to value the sagittal ridge

Novales M.
We want to see the medial malleolus of the tibia and the medial trochlear ridge of the talus.
We want to see the distal intermediate ridge of the tibia and the lateral trochlear ridge of the talus.

1 Dorsomedial-plantarolateral or Plantarolateral-dorsomedial of both hocks

Novales M.
Medial and lateral thromclear ridge of the femurr

Microchip

Novales M.

Stifles: LM view
Not allowed. Impossible to value the proximal part of the medial and lateral trochlear ridge of the femur.