OBJECTIVES

The aim of this course is to offer students a historical overview of the literature written in English from the Middle Ages to the present.

Students will read and analyse several narrative, poetic and dramatic works and selected extracts written by the most relevant authors so that topics, strategies and literary conventions of each period may be well illustrated and more easily identified.

A basic contextual approach with reference to major historical and cultural events which have shaped the literature produced in English-speaking nations will be provided as well. The aim is to allow students to better understand the evolution that this multiple and diverse tradition has undergone through time.

Finally, in order to approach the literary texts under scrutiny basic concepts and specific literary terminology as well as basic strategies of stylistic and textual analysis will be necessary.
