METHODOLOGY

General clarifications on the methodology (optional)

This course involves face-to-face instruction. Students who cannot fulfill this requirement for duly justified reasons must contact the teaching staff at the beginning of the semester.

In agreement with the commitment of the University to the early and permanent education in the field of equality (Artículo 7 de la Ley Orgánica 1/2004 de 28 de diciembre, de Medidas de Protección Integral contra la Violencia de Género; Artículos 24 y 25 de la Ley Orgánica 3/2007 de 22 de marzo, para la igualdad efectiva de mujeres y hombres; II Plan de Igualdad entre hombres y mujeres de la Universidad de Córdoba, aprobado en Consejo de Gobierno en Sesión Ordinaria de 03/12/2018), training in equality matters is a critical issue for a prospective teacher. Therefore, an attitude of respect between men and women will be seriously considered in this course, (both in the written and oral texts) and in the behavior with the university community.

Methodological adaptations for part-time students and students with disabilities and special educational needs

Students enrolled part-time must notify the teacher responsible for the subject at the beginning of the course, so that the appropriate monitoring mechanisms can be established. It will be compulsory to provide formal justification for such condition.

The methodological strategies and assessment system set out in this teaching guide will be adapted according to the specific characteristics of students with disabilities and special educational needs in those cases that are required, in accordance with the Regulations to facilitate the incorporation and integration of personnel with disabilities at the University of Córdoba (Acuerdo de Consejo de Gobierno, en sesión ordinaria de 28 de abril de 2017, UCO BOUCO- Enlace: <https://sede. uco.es/bouco/bandejaAnuncios/BOUCO/2017/00290>).

(*)Minimum mark (out of 10) needed for the assessment tool to be weighted in the course final mark. In any case, final mark must be 5,0 or higher to pass the course.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Method of assessment of attendance:

Attendance with active participation and involvement in classes will be evaluated as part of the Debateassessment activity (20%). Likewise, attendance will also be considered to obtain honors.

General clarifications on instruments for evaluation:

It is necessary to pass all the assessment activities (the minimum mark required in each part is 5) to pass the course.

In order to pass the course, a good level of linguistic and communicative competence (in Spanish) will be essential. The lack of correction in the preparation of oral or written texts (in Spanish) may negatively impact the final grade and/or even imply the subject fail. Nevertheless, English will be encouraged and use through the course and as a vehicle of communication. English errors (grammar, punctuation, spelling) could be pointed out but, in no way, they will decrease the final grade. Mistakes in Spanish will decrease the final grade as stated above.

Clarifications on the methodology for part-time students and students with disabilities and special educational needs:

Non-face to face teaching is not an available option at the University of Cordoba. The evaluation of this course will be in agreement with the fulfilment of the Intended Learning Outcomes for all students according to the set methodology and potential adaptations will be agreed upon by the teaching staff. In any case, students under these circumstances must contact and inform the teaching staff at the beginning of the course.

Clarifications on the evaluation of the extraordinary call and extra-ordinary call for completion studies:

For extraordinary calls, all those passing grades obtained by the student in the different assessment activities will be kept during the whole academic year.

Qualifying criteria for obtaining honors:

Requirements set in the UCO Regulation will be followed in this matter.
