In case we don't receive the proof of your registration in that date (May 7th), your presentation will be dismissed.

Moreover, we beg you to send us, with deadline June 7th, 2019, a file, in an editable format (word, txt. or similar), with the full text of your communication (four A4 pages, with an additional page for references. Papers must be written in English).

Your full paper will be included in the full paper book of the Colloquium, that will be published with all the papers presented in the event, both as oral and poster.

3. ABSTRACTS BOOK

We inform you that a book of abstracts will be edited, with the abstracts of the oral and posters communications that will be presented during the Colloquium. « Vision Zero: world prevention strategy in agriculture»
«University of Cordoba, 15 17 May, 2019»
- Display boards will be provided for posters. Material for posters mounting will be available in the Technical Secretariat. Please use only these materials, in order to avoid damages on the poster boards.

- Poster sessions will take place at the exhibition tent located in a courtyard of the Rectorate (venue of the Colloquium), during the coffee-breaks, and will provide an opportunity for discussion in a relaxed setting. A poster author or coauthor is required to stand by the poster during the scheduled breaks, to answer questions from attendees. In the tent there will be an exhibition of stands of sponsoring entities and companies, of the prevention sector in agriculture, social security and mutuality, among others.

- We inform you that in this Congress a service of interpretation English-French-Spanish is going to be offered. This service will be at your disposal for anything you may need.
 - The authors and the presenter author of the communication can't be modified once they have been communicated and approved by the Evaluation Committee.
 - In case you finally couldn't attend the Colloquium, we would appreciate that you let us know it in advance, in order to adapt the program without causing incidents for the people registered to the event.

Finally, if you need any further clarification for this or other issues related to the Colloquium, please contact the Technical Secretariat.
